33 Signs of Good Pastor

Purpose for this Book:

There are sincere pastors and preachers in America. However, this book has been written to WARN against those who are NOT, they are imposters deceiving multitudes. We labor to expose them and warn every sincere follower of Jesus Christ to know how they operate, what they teach and their lifestyles.

God has compelled us to bring forth this writing to glorify Jesus Christ and set at liberty anyone who has been deceived by men and women claiming to be sent by God, who practice any of the 33 Signs that will be expounded in this manuscript for your edification and relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

As you read this book, keep in mind this question, “Would Jesus Christ teach or do any of the forthcoming?”

We Love You !

2Pe 2:1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

Introduction

Sinister ministers are setting up churches everywhere in our neighborhoods across America; inside of schools, community centers, hotels, their homes, and store fronts. But, does America REALLY need another political agenda to fix the many problems in the nation? Or could it be that the real "culprit" is in our 'pulpits' unchallenged by the masses as they peddle the Word of God by using trickery, intimidation and false teachings, seducing the weak, vulnerable and unlearned?

These very charismatic messengers of false hope are consumed with lofty titles that many insist you call them; Dr., The Most Reverend, Prophet, Prophetess, Apostle, Bishop, Elder, Chief Apostle, Senior Pastor.... Whoa! This list could go on! ~ I smell a rat, don't you? Prestige, money, power and church members is their ambition and reason for their position they have placed themselves in, claiming God has called and sent them. Nonetheless, ministry is biig business for them. There are those who literally call themselves CEO's of their businesses that are being maintained under the guise of a Christian church fellowship.

Countless pastors and 'spiritual' leaders no longer talk about sin or hell. They scoff at these subjects and when they do speak of them, they are made light of. The main focus of their teachings is church growth. Their sermons are saturated with 'formulas' and 'methods' on how to be 'blessed,' while they continue hoarding and disregarding the hurting and needs of their followers, who bring these materialistic messengers their offerings and tithes to help pay for their lavish lifestyles they will brag about and flaunt in the midst of those in their congregations that are riddled mostly with extreme poverty.

Their hallmark is empty promises of healing and financial blessings to those who will 'partner' with them, yet the numbers are soaring as sickness and disease is claiming the lives of countless believers in the prime of their lives. Mental illness and stress levels are exploding amongst confessing Christians who have believed the lies of these corrupt messengers who exalt gaining financial wealth, instead of spiritual wealth. They are prophets for profit! Professional ‘word brokers,’ indeed, spiritual embezzlers! They convince their followers that showering their pastors with gifts is a pathway to salvation and blessings from God for their lives, and if they will not faint in well doing, they will reap their harvest too!

This book will assist you on how to identify these very clever and oftentimes great speakers, and build your confidence to walk with God by faith void of pressure to give your money to please God, rather than your obedience and your own choice to give your money with a “cheerful” heart as you purpose to give it as a New Testament follower of Jesus Christ.

Come on! Let's try the fruit of these modern day ‘sinister ministers’ and see what they are REALLY working with besides arrogance, fear tactics and eloquence of speech.

Get yourself a cup of tea and follow me, time to get your money back and put some of these great pretenders out of business, TODAY! Right Now! Pronto! Immediately! Urgently!

CHAPTER ONE

The Con Game of the Century

‘Sow a Seed for Your Need’

“There shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies...”

2 Peter 2:1

The biggest money scam ever known to man, is the false teaching of corrupt preachers who insist if you give your money to “God,” which is really “them,” you will get some money from the true and living God in return, or, as some would say, pressed down, shaken together and running over shall men give you some of their money! Sow it, so you can grow it! “Sow” your seeds (your money) and ‘Reap your Harvest!’ ‘Bless to be blessed, blessed, blessed! However, the fact is this, multitudes have been deceived, fleeced, and ripped off by these corrupt messengers who have adulterated, mutilated and complicated the Word of God. And for some, they are angry at God, because they have YET to receive their HARVEST after listening and believing the lies of the corrupt who have turned God’s Word and its sacredness into a money-making system using the name of Jesus Christ, presenting him as a 'magic genie' who wants to give us the world, rather than save us from the world. God has become Santa Claus to masses of unsuspecting church goers who have been deceived by the Great Pretenders, corrupt preachers.

As you continue to read throughout this book, I want you to keep this one question in mind, 'Who really wants to be poor?' The answer is simple, No One! It is for this reason that multitudes of people have been, and are being seduced by this money-scam promoting you should give your money to get some money from God.

It is vitally important to understand real church leaders are sent by God to edify you 'spiritually' and prepare you for your eternal life after death. False or corrupt teachers, or shall I say, 'pulpit predators,' edify you 'materially' and prepare you for the here and now, promises of prosperity is their bait! All you have to do is 'sow that seed for your need.' Needs, seeds and lots of blessings ~ so they say!

In the natural world of business, we make financial investments to get returns, but as followers of Jesus Christ, we should give our money with a cheerful and willing heart expecting NOTHING in return. 'It is more blessed to give than to receive,' Acts 20:35. My Friend, you should not give money to 'GET' blessed, but rather to 'BE' a blessing! This is precisely what Jesus has told us in this scripture. We should give out of a sincere heart to bless others regardless of what we may, or may not receive in return. If we give for any other reason, we set ourselves up to be deceived by the false teachings of spiritual charlatans who convince their followers there is a price tag on their soul, blessings and destiny. You will begin to seek God for what you can get from Him rather than for who He is....God! Creator of the heavens and the earth, and all that is within.

These corrupt messengers are in business! And businesses exist for one purpose ONLY~ to make money!

Businesses need customer retention strategies to maintain customer loyalty and conversion of sales. The same is true for corrupt messengers who constantly build false hope with their false teachings. They are professional 'word brokers' indeed.

When we examine one of Jesus' most profound teachings regarding being 'blessed,' there is no question that someone is lying, and we know it is NOT Jesus! Listen to this very carefully as I submit the following text as a foundation to expose and unravel this extremely pervasive MONEY SCAM in the church that misrepresents God, who absolutely, unequivocally DOES NOT need your money to bless you with his love, peace, forgiveness, eternal life, OR to give you a financial blessing!

Matthew 5:1-12

Now when he (Jesus) saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them, saying:
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.
Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.'

Nowhere does Jesus tell us, 'Blessed are those that sow a seed for their need' into their favorite preacher or ministry. Nowhere does Jesus say blessed are those who give their money to insecure, materialistic preachers who like to draw attention to themselves by driving Bentley's, Land Rover's, and Mercedes' Benz cars, flaunting the latest designer clothes, jewelry and handbags, while their followers sacrificially 'sow' their utility bill and rent money to those who claim to preach in His name. Simply put, Real Blessings Have Nothing to Do with Money! NOTHING!

False teachers exalt material things because they love the things of this world; houses, cars and land ~ prestige, money and power. They are counterfeits. They are hoarders, who neglect the hurting. How many people could and would benefit greatly from their personal wealth, if they sold their assets and gave to the poor the way they should if they were real pastors and spiritual leaders? We could wipe out a significant amount of poverty in our Nation if they practiced what they preached. Or shall I say, "practiced what they should be preaching."

Materialism is their bait to entice those who are poor, struggling financially and those who crave to have more. If you are giving your money to get 'a harvest,' you have been deceived. If you are 'sowing seed' in other words, your money, for the preachers to 'reap' wealth and prosperity, you have been deceived! Instead, if you want more financial freedom, you should work hard, master your skills, and pay your bills! Do not believe the hype that 'sowing' your money is going to bring you financial rewards with God. It is a LIE! Many deceptive teachers have become very wealthy while leaving a trail of poor, wounded and disillusioned Christians in their wake who believed the lie that giving their money was the way to receive from God.

Let us take a look at another scripture that some have also mutilated to justify their greed and lies. Matthew Chapter 13 – please study this - Jesus is speaking of the parable of the ‘Sower.’ Let’s look at verse 23, ‘...But he that received seed into the good ground is he that hears the word, and understands it; which also bears fruit, and brings forth, some an hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty’. In this text the ‘seed’ that Jesus is referring to IS the Word of God.

The soil in which the seed has been sown speaks of the heart. The fruit/harvest that it brings forth hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty, is a changed life of obedience to the Word of God. Preachers, or should I rather say, Predators! How in the world did you get ‘money’ out of this parable? How are you just making this stuff up? The ‘seed’ that Jesus is clearly speaking about is The Word of God. Not Money! The ‘soil’ that Jesus is speaking about is the ‘heart,’ yet the corrupt preacher would have you believe their own material success stories make them ‘good ground’ for sowing. However, the harvest Jesus is speaking about is a changed life of obedience and love for God, NOT more money! This is nothing more than twisting of the truth for selfish gain. It is a money scam! Scam, scam, S C A M!

Listen followers of Jesus Christ, if we would ‘sow’ the Word of God the way many of us are trying to ‘sow’ your money, we would have less crime, addictions and depression in our nation. The Word of God is alive! Jesus is letting us know in the before mentioned parable that if the Word is ‘sown’ (taught, preached or proclaimed) to others, it has the power to bring forth a harvest of righteousness in the life of the person it is sown. Without a ‘sower,’ there can be no harvest .... As the Lord Jesus Christ said in this same chapter, ‘He that has an ear, let him hear!’

When a person goes to the Word of God with a ‘preconceived’ notion already in his or her heart, that person will likely be deceived into using the Scriptures to justify their wrong intentions. This word ‘preconceived’ means that you have already ‘conceived’ what you believe before you allow the Word of God or the Scriptures to speak to your heart. Therefore, you will not study the Word of God with a pure heart, but rather with a desire to prove your conceived idea. How can anyone really believe that Jesus was using the parable of sow and reaping to cause any of His disciples to believe they could ‘sow’ their money into His ministry or those that came after him to get money blessings from God? God does not guarantee money for money. Nor do you have to pay for your salvation or for a blessing. Preachers, if you have a need, just say so, do not adulterate God’s Word and use it to manipulate His people by telling them that God will give them money for their money. This is a lie! God will judge you for lying and misleading His people, now this... “I Decree and I Declare!!”

Do you know that King Solomon, who is the richest man that has ever lived, NEVER ‘sowed’ a penny to a prophet, evangelist, pastor, or teacher? (Story told in 1Kings, Chapter 1) God GAVE Solomon his wealth! “I am still smelling that rat - don’t you?” Solomon never went to a church revival or leadership conference. He never partnered via online credit card checkout for monthly withdrawal from his empire to get a blessing, cloth, trinket, oil or “A Word” for that matter. Some of us refuse to wake up and smell the coffee! You have YET to GET the blessing that the so-called prophethess or prophet “claimed” God was going to bless you with. If you had purchased a new appliance that did not work, you would have taken it back and demanded your money back, but the corrupt preacher continues to thrive because many refuse to DEMAND their money back and for their corrupt preacher to give and account of what they are doing with their monies. Luke 6:38, ‘Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you mete withal it shall be measured to you again.' This scripture, like the previous text, has been misused and taken out of context by bogus teachers. They promise that God and man will give them money for their money. However, this text like the previous text, is not talking about 'sowing' money. This scripture speaks about giving or 'sowing' mercy and not judging and condemning others. Jesus is speaking about someone trying to remove a 'mote' out of his brother's eye when that person has a 'beam' in his own eye. In other words, you are a cheater, but you attempt to tell others about their cheating. Jesus is speaking to us about forgiveness and hypocrisy, and knowing a person by their 'fruit,' loving our enemies. As a matter of fact, in this same Chapter, verse 35, Jesus tells us, 'But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again.' So much for expecting a financial harvest!

Jesus said, '... It is more blessed to give than to receive, Acts 20:35. Why does Jesus let us know that it is more blessed to give than to receive? Because there will be many times you are going to give, and not even receive a 'thank you,' let alone a 'return' from what you have given. Jesus does not want us to be discouraged in giving in any area of our lives. We are the children of God. We do all that we do for His glory. The unfortunate thing about this whole craze on money and prosperity is that those that do teach these lies have also taught those under their corrupt leadership to be just as ambitious; greedy and self-serving as they are. We have dual generations saturated with these false notions about God. They constantly remind you how much God wants you blessed, and He does. However, that blessing is not acquired by giving your money, but rather, your life!

If Jesus were alive today, would he be soliciting us to 'sow a seed' for our needs into His ministry to REAP a financial harvest from God? Jesus had a very serious 'need' on the hillside of Golgotha as He bled and died for the sins of the entire world. I guess Jesus did not have this 'modern day truth' that all He needed to do was 'sow a seed' for His need; that if he had paid up, he would have somehow gotten down off that cross for you and for me? If it sounds ridiculous, it's because it is!

Listen to what Jude says about false teachers in verse 1- 11, 'Woe unto them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Baalam for reward, they have been destroyed in Korah's rebellion.' Korah in the book of Numbers 16:1-35 rebelled against God's appointed leader who was Moses. He wanted power for himself.

Jesus is the delegated authority over the church, but these false teachers want power for themselves over your life as if you are really a 'dumb sheep' and they are the great 'know all' and 'be all' for your life. If you will read the story of Korah's rebellion, the earth opened up and swallowed up Korah and those with him, and so it is with false teachers. The earth has swallowed them up! They are dead men and women walking around without the Spirit of God, hoping that with enough polish and charisma you will not notice how dead they really are. Ironically, some are great orators and this is how they can seduce you, by preaching! How do you know who they are? Easy - all they talk about is the earth, the tree ~ money! Why? This is what they love. This is their 'god' that has given them a counterfeit peace, with a pseudo Christ they believe has 'blessed' them and wants to bless you. They will talk about 'giving' 52 weeks per year. Money is their 'hot topic' of the day, the week and the year. Money is the love of their lives; for out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth will speak. Their messages are shrouded in inspiration for you to become successful and prosperous, so that you can bring them more money, more money, more money! The more you make, the more they take in the Name of Jesus.

Instead of loving the poor and seeking ways to serve them consistently, they mock them in their sermons claiming those who are poor have been ‘cursed’ with their poverty, and that poverty is a curse that is broken by “sowing” what little money they do have to get their needs met by “God.” Their public display of generosity is a ‘smoke screen’ for their evil and perverse hearts that crave financial stability and materialism at the expense of the poor and downtrodden in their midst. The Word of God clearly tells us, ‘Better is the poor that walks in his uprightness than he that is perverse in his ways though he be rich,’ Proverbs 28:6. How is it possible for a “real” pastor to purchase a pair of $550 snake skin shoes with tithes and offerings from his congregation, when the majority of those in his congregation have no shoes? How is it possible for a “real” pastor to spend thousands of dollars a month on designer clothes and jewelry for his wife and kids, and the majority of his followers can’t afford to buy groceries for theirs?

These false messengers insist there should be ‘no lack’ in your life, and they are correct - no lack of peace and joy in the Holy Ghost! Some of their talk about ‘no lack’ sounds very philosophical. It sounds ‘REAL’ good considering the fact that our God does own ‘the cattle upon a thousand hills’ Psalm 50:1, and so they insist that for this reason and other ‘proof text’ they will use, you should have whatever ‘you’ say. Never mind the ‘will’ of God for your life. Never mind the fact that we all need to be broken in areas of our lives. Never mind the fact most of the situations we want to get out of, we caused them ourselves. Never mind the fact that God even tells us that “He chastens those that He loves” in Hebrews Chapter 12. No amount of money can stop the chastening of the Lord. None!

As a result of this ‘no lack’ theology, many have been deceived into thinking no negative circumstance in their lives could have been orchestrated by God to bring correction in their lives, but yet, they call him Lord. Lord means owner, master - the boss. We want to escape pain and desolation, but our Master did not! We do not want to be pressed on every side and so it is easy to believe the lies of those who seduce you with promises that you can have whatever ‘you’ say. Escapism! No pain, just give us gain! Give us more, more, more! Not So! God is not a ‘money tree’ that you drop down seeds in the earth and then wait for it, or shall I say, wait for Him to ‘grow it,’ so that you can ‘go’ to the bank with your ‘harvest.’ Wrong God! False god maybe, but the true and the living God, never!

Listen my Friend; you must understand that many false teachers are caught up in lifestyles they cannot afford unless they fleece you. This is why it is easy for them to believe a lie and begin to teach it with conviction. The love of power, praises of men, and treasures in this life has opened a portal of self-deception for them. They are entangled, trapped, and blindly unaware, just like Paul the apostle, told Timothy they would be, this is why you must know the voice of the Lord for yourself. You cannot allow any human being to become larger than life to you ~ especially a preacher! Listen to this in 1Timothy 6:9-11, ‘People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many grieves.’

If you have a desire to be rich, you are easy prey to false teachings about prosperity. As a matter of fact, it is ambitious, greedy people who are most attracted to these false teachers. They want to believe the lies because they want prosperity too. They do not want any ‘lack’ or deficits in their lives. They want to be in control and money denotes control for most. However, Jesus tells us we cannot serve two masters. Matthew 6:24, ‘No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.’ Are you sincerely devoted to God or making money? What really motivates your life? Where do you get your self-worth and identity from?

Deceivers’ will say God spoke to them and told them that, ‘This is the year of debt cancellation for those that will become a ‘partner’ with their ministry, by ‘sowing a seed.’’ Right! Lies!

Lies! Lies! These contrived ploys are fueled by the pride of life and greed.

If you are in debt, or you have some very serious financial problems, listen to me very closely my Friend, you cannot 'sow' your way out of debt to a preacher or your church pastor. You don't need to sow into any ministry to be 'blessed.' You need to go and pay your bills! Pay your debtors! This is precisely what makes predatory preachers rich! They are opportunists! They are masters of principles, formulas and methods to get you out of debt ~ their ultimate pitch, you need to sow a "sacrificial seed offering." However, until you really face what got you in financial debt, like overindulgence or sloppy money management, you will never be free of the yoke of debt. Most of us automatically think of 'money' when we think of blessings or of having a rich life. However, there are God haters' who are extremely wealthy. Why? Because, there is a huge difference between, having money and being 'blessed' spiritually, this is why we can chronicle in times past wealthy and famous people who have committed suicide in their ten million dollar homes.

How can a billionaire whose sins are not forgiven be considered 'blessed?' How can a person really be considered 'blessed' if they own houses, cars and land, yet their uncontrolled temper causes them to physically abuse others? How can we call a person 'blessed' who has prominence and wealth, yet they are addicted to drugs and pornography? This is not a blessed person. This is a person in bondage.

There is a good possibility that if you work hard and perfect your skills you can make some money to pay your bills. However, it doesn't matter how much money you make if you are suicidal, empty on the inside, yet full of 'stuff' on the outside. Why is this so very prevalent in America? Because multitudes have been deceived into believing blessings are 'contracts' and 'contacts,' retirement plans, money in the bank and no outstanding debts - all of these things are great, however, does any of it satisfy a thirsty soul that is depressed, lonely and worse than that, what does it prosper anyone whose sins are not forgiven and they die and enter eternity without making peace with God by the shed blood of Jesus Christ?

I wonder what type of 'gospel' these false teachers would have for a billionaire who already has the 'things' they keep insisting you can, and should have in the name of Jesus Christ? It is very likely a billionaire would not be able to find salvation, because he already knows the 'god' that they are preaching about. He already knows how to make his money grow. He could write a book about it, and make even more money. Many would consider the billionaire 'blessed,' but the billionaire would disagree. He knows he is not. He is rich but he is not blessed. That is why he would be looking for the 'real' Jesus. Emptiness fills his heart. The fear of death overtakes his thoughts. He is empty inside, no peace, no joy, or sense of real purpose, and he wants to know about Jesus. The 'real' Jesus Christ of Nazareth, not this pseudo Christ who many are heralding – a fake Jesus who wants to pay your bills, cancel your debt and give you power over regions and other people they lead. How then, could the billionaire find the real Jesus? He has no lack in the natural world, but the thing he does have need of the most, they do not talk about, and that is sin! The billionaire seeking the real Jesus would need his sins forgiven, not a formula or principle on how to get a new pair of golf clubs to soothe his sin-sick soul.

When there is a lack of patience in our lives and no quality time spent with God and His Word, we become vulnerable and can become prey to corrupt men and women. Remember the Reverend Jim Jones of the People's Temple? Despite his charisma and talent for gathering followers, he ended up paranoid, destitute of the truth, and through force and intimidation, beguiled nearly 1,000 souls who went to perdition with him in a mass suicide in 1978. Many in this generation have become just as evil and controlling as this man was, the only difference is that they have not asked you to move to a remote part of a foreign country so they can control you. Instead, they come right through our televisions and computers with one touch of a button with their poisonous teachings. Cunning and crafty they are. Ravenous wolves on the prowl, and they are howling like never before! Setting up in every poor neighborhood and suburb alike, they especially love to set up in suburbs where they have the chance to reap bigger offerings and tithes from their elite and financially prowess community prey who most, do not spend any time studying the scriptures, why? Because they are consumed trying to maintain their wealth.

If you are a student of the Word of God, you will come to know this fact about God. He is never in a rush. We are! This is also why multitudes are being seduced into financial ruin. We will not discipline ourselves to 'study' the Word of God for ourselves. We take its relevance lightly. We disregard the admonition of Paul the apostle, who admonished Timothy to 'study to show himself approved unto God, a workman that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth,' 2Timothy 2:15. We must not forget that reading is not the same as studying, and listening is not the same as hearing. We must 'study' the Word of God to 'hear' what God is saying to our hearts.

SPECIAL NOTE: Unless you make time for private devotion and studying of the Holy Scriptures for yourself, YOU WILL be taken for a ride by 21st Century corrupt preachers.

CHAPTER TWO

“You Will Know them By Their Fruit”

John 10:11-13

‘I am the good shepherd: The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand is not the shepherd who owns the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.’

From the inception of the church of Jesus Christ, there have always been those who have not been called and commissioned by Him. False messengers and hirelings, which is a worker for hire, they do what they do for the rewards. This is most prominent in the office of pastor. You should be very careful attending ANY church where the people “vote” in their pastors, why? Hirelings are HIRED. God’s messengers are sent. This is precisely the reason so many people are seeking theological education to graduate with their degree to get into the church as a “career” choice, rather than God’s choice. Big church, big money! Big money, big things!!!

A hireling’s motivation is not the best interest of the people of God, but rather what can get from the people. They do not love people. They love power, prestige and money. You will know them by this one thing indeed, everything they give you in the name of God is sold to you. Everything!!!! Hirelings are hired to do what they do, in most cases, just run their mouths, and have church meetings on how to raise more money for their next vacation trip or shopping spree at their favorite upscale department stores with your hard earned monies. Hirelings and false teachers will not instruct in righteousness. They do not want to offend anyone. Why? They want your ATTENDANCE and YOUR MONEY! If I offend you, you will likely go and find yourself somewhere else to give your money. And thus, this is the state of the union of the United States of America where it is common for hirelings, so called pastors to hire consultants to come and motivate them how to build a “successful” church, giving them ‘secular business’ strategies for ‘church growth.’

Now listen to this very carefully, “...Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. BUT, exhort (encourage, strive with, admonish) one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin,” Hebrews 3:12-13.

My dear friend, this is what real ministers and followers of Jesus Christ will do when in right standing with God, exhort you to come out of sin and be ready at all times to meet our creator. There is a plethora of sins any of us, at any time can fall into. We need exhortation! We need rebuke! Why? We can become desensitized about sin, and fall away from the ‘living God.’ We are in a constant war for our eternal souls. Constant! Many cry when their feelings are hurt after they are rebuked, but guess what? I rather cry now than enter eternity, and go to hell because I was deceived by my own sin, that no one strived with me “in love” to cease for the cause of Christ, who died a very painful death for my sins, only for me to go back and no one helps to restore me in the fear and admonition of God. Eternity is too long, to be wrong! God help us all!

Remember, a hireling is a worker for hire. They are religious and theological gurus whose primary interests are rewards, prestige, power and the rising of their names and most often, their ‘first ladies.’ All preachers who lift up their wives before the congregation usurping worship and adoration for themselves and their wives, are apostate. They are corrupt. Make no mistake my friend, if you are attending a so-called “Christian” fellowship carrying on in this self-exaltation, run for the nearest exit!

Besides self-exaltation as if they are gods, usually wearing their collars and robes to stand out and draw attention to themselves, they run when the wolf comes or they allow other wolves to roam freely in their churches because they are alike. They are not filled with the Spirit of Christ, but rather, the spirit of this world, materialism! Jesus said’ that you will know a tree by the fruit that it bears.’ (Matthew 7:16).

These ambitious ‘covenant’ talkers love to advocate rewards and ‘natural blessings’ from God for your life, their messages are saturated with self-exaltation, rather than self-denial. They constantly encourage their followers to ‘be all,’ and ‘get all’ that they can, why? Because the more money you make, the more they take in the name of God ~ Name it! Claim it! Blab it, and Grab it! Instead of laying down their lives for the people of God, hirelings or ‘sinister ministers’ want you to lay down your life for them. They are pre-occupied with earthly pursuits and marketing strategies to attract more ‘members’ to their cults, Oops! I meant to say companies, Oopsy again! I really meant to say - churches, where they already disregard the needs of the people who are following them. They love promoting “Friends and Family” day, why? New people, mean new money.

On any given Sunday, you can go into many churches in any city, and find provocative, sexually dressed women leading the choir, praise teams, giving the morning announcements, walking up and down the aisles ‘ushering’ the people of God. And in some very disheartening instances, these pornographically dressed women will be the ‘keynote’ speakers. Why is this? The pastor has NOT been sent by God! Or, they have become corrupt. They refuse to confront this ever-increasing display of breasts, hips and thighs in their fellowships. They don’t care these sexually clad women are causing others to lust and sin in their hearts right in the fellowship of the people of God. Just bring the money! Whosoever will, let them come!

I am not talking about female visitors dressed in this manner either, I am talking about women who are in leadership, women who claim they are followers of Jesus Christ who have been in their churches for years. But don't you know my Friend that once you have made a "sincere" confession for Christ, school is in! You have to be instructed in righteousness on how to walk worthy of your confession. This is the daunting task of REAL ministers and pastors sent by God...to teach holiness!

Pastors with wrong motives run when the wolf comes. Make no mistake; half naked women clad in attire of a harlot have one purpose in mind, SEDUCTION!

Predatory pastors in particular, allow provocatively dressed women in leadership to roam throughout their congregations with no opposition. Oftentimes, it is their own wives and daughters who are playing the harlot, and 'so called' prophetess, evangelists, and missionaries they have placed in leadership to keep them busy bringing in more members to get their money too. They will not correct these women clad in their sexual attire, why? Because females are the largest financial contributors to the church in America. Women are the most in attendance on any given Sunday, or church service for that matter. These compromising clergy will allow these provocative women to entice, seduce weak and broken men, women, and youth whose hearts and minds are already bound by sexual addictions. Why? Why! WHY! They want church members!! They want the M O N E Y!! They want the next 'mega' church in America! Never mind the fact that multitudes are bound by pornography, and all manner of sexual perversions. When they do come to church, they can't find any relief for their weary souls because 'pornographic images' of sexually, provocative women exposing their breast, hips, thighs, and bare skin are everywhere in the church fellowship.... I smell a RAT!! Don't you?

PASTORS! Real Pastors sent by Jesus Christ! You must contend with this provocative spirit! It is the work of Jezebel AND Delilah!! Jezebel has cast many under her spell ~ Seduction! She wants to get into your head, so she can get into your bed!! Lift up your staff and back the wolf from out of the midst of the fellowships!!!! Put Jezebel Out! Put her out! Do not tolerate the harlot in the fellowship of God's people – If it looks like a duck, walks like a duck....IT'S A DUCK!! What you see, does affect how you feel. How you feel can provoke how you act, and before you know it, you are right back into what God hates, sin.

Please allow me to digress here for a moment. We hear much talk about the 'Spirit of Jezebel,' in some denominations of Christendom, but I would like to make this one fact about this spirit very clear, Jezebel was a sex goddess. She does not operate without sex being involved, whether it is sexual attire, conversation, sexual body movement, or exalting natural beauty to seduce. This is how she dominated her husband Ahab. She used her beauty and sexuality to destroy him. Jezebel controls through sexuality! All human beings want to control by nature, it is in every last one of us from the moment we exit our mother's womb. But where the Spirit of Jezebel is manifest, whether in a man or a woman, it does not operate without sexual seduction being involved some kind of way. Let me prove it to you, Jesus told John in Revelation 2:20 "Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou suffers that woman Jezebel, which calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her space to repent of fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds." Jezebel is a sexual predator. She loves to call herself a prophetess. And this is evident when we look at the plethora of self-proclaiming prophetess on FaceBook and YouTube channels laden with excessive make-up, hair-weaves, finger nails and tight fitted breast huggin' attire. In many cases their breast cleavage revealed unashamedly. Make no mistake about it, these women are our 21st Century Jezebel's. Men can also possess this diabolic seductive spirit ass well. They claim they are ministers and prophets of Jesus Christ while wearing make-up, strange hair styles drawing attention to themselves with 'wife beaters' on revealing their tattooed muscles on their Periscope channels. Some even go so far as to wear 'skinny jeans' that cut right into their 'tool box' area without any shame whatsoever.....what kinda mess is this!!! I will tell you, apostasy! That is exactly what it is. My friend, if it is you carrying on like this, you need to REPENT!!!!!! Yes! I said REPENT! This word REPENT is no doubt still the 'love language' of heaven, despite the multitudes that have come to loathe hearing it, encouraged by the apostate preachers who do not want to risk offending their followers. Nonetheless, when you repent, it means you STOP, THINK and TURN from ungodly behavior that can and will cost you your soul. We must make no mistake about it, when each one of us dies, we will meet our creator. You will meet God!

LADIES! Save your sexy for your husband! You know exactly what you are doing when you put on those tight, revealing clothes. God is going to judge you. MAKE NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT. Put it away! Walk worthy of your confession in Christ Jesus. You are NOT a harlot, you are God's handmaiden. He loves you, and you do not have to continue starving for attention and adoration through your breasts, hips, and thighs anymore, you are accepted in the Beloved, just as you are! Don't allow some silly 'so called' Christian women to trick you into believing you can play the harlot and still go to heaven, it will NOT happen! It will not! "A prostitute is a dangerous trap; a promiscuous woman is as dangerous as falling into a narrow well. She hides and waits like a robber, eager to make more men unfaithful." Proverbs 23:27. Ladies! Do Not Let This Be Said Of You! Every time you purposely, or carelessly, adorn your body with inappropriate, sexy, provocative attire for public display, you are enticing someone's son, husband, uncle, grandfather. You are playing the harlot and the spirit of Jezebel is working in you. KILL IT!!!!!!

Special Note: Hirelings, wolves, and false teachers are not always easy to spot at a quick glance. They can be very eloquent, attractive, ‘sweet’ and ‘loveable’ people that do ‘good’ works. Not all that they teach is false. However, tithing, church membership, attendance and complete submission to them is their favorite topics. Jesus, sin, hell and repentance is barely mentioned if at all. It’s all about your success and growing the “church.”

CHAPTER THREE

The New Fake Fad

I Decree and, I Declare!

Because many corrupt preachers have come from humble beginnings, they will try to sell you on how they ‘overcame’ their poverty with a variety of “deep” rhetoric and spiritual tricks, which they will package into a teaching series on, ‘How to Take Authority Over Your Life.’ I have heard one very well-known teacher of this type of dogma boast, “I’m living large, ‘cause I’m in charge, and you too can have what you say!” There is another false teacher that claims “decree it and declare it” and it is yours! Hmmmm! I smell a rat! This is the latest fad that has hit the church in some denominations like a storm. It sounds real good, but trust me my Friend, it is all hype, that instigates one thing that God hates.....pride!

I challenge my Brothers and Sisters in Christ who believe these false teachings on ‘taking authority’ and ‘being in charge’ to remember our Brothers and Sisters who died in the Twin Towers in New York City on September 11, 2001. They were not ‘in charge’ of their ‘situation’ in the final moments before those buildings collapsed. Let us remember our Brothers and Sisters in Christ who were devastated by Hurricane Katrina in August of 2005. How dare anyone have the nerve to herald these false teachings in front of those who are mourning with the insinuation that because of their misfortunes, they must not have had faith? Can any of these false teachers explain to us why our Brothers and Sisters in Christ were not able to ‘take authority’ over their situations? I guess none of them had enough ‘faith’ to stop the terrorists from attacking the United States or enough ‘faith’ to stop one of the deadliest hurricanes in the history of our Nation from making landfall with their “decrees or declarations?”

Predatory preachers have no empathy for the before mentioned facts, instead they like to brag that with a few simple tricks, we can ‘take charge’ of every aspect of our lives, just ‘decree it’ and “declare it!” They claim we can eliminate misfortune from touching our lives if we ‘cough up’ $99.99 for their Three-Part DVD series on ‘How to Have What You Say!’ and ‘Your Best Life Right Now.” How can any of us really believe that we have the ultimate power and authority over every situation in our lives, when we also consider our Brothers and Sisters who have been martyred in other countries for their faith? I guess they have no ‘faith’ or ‘authority’ either? It was not long ago our nation was struck by the tragic deaths of children being gunned down in their classrooms at the tender ages of 5 and 6 years of age. I got four words for all of you corrupt messengers, “SHUT UP and REPENT!”

I am reminded of a husband and wife missionary team who went to spread the message Jesus Christ in another country together. The wife was shot and killed for her faith that she and her husband both put on the line when they left the safety and comforts of their lives to go and ‘really’ spread the Gospel. The only persons who do not have real faith are these false teachers and hirelings who use material things to seduce and entice others to have a ‘pseudo’ faith in natural laws as they sit in their lofty homes and studios speaking lies, instigating false hope. Most of them are cowards, they do not have a clue what real faith is. They use high pressure sales tactics and marketing ploys to get the ‘prosperity’ they claim

God has given to them. Liar, Liar, their pants shall be on fire for all of eternity for mutilating and merchandising the Word of God for their own personal gain. THIS I DECREE AND I DECLARE! And I promise it shall come to pass!

My Friend, if you are a minister reading this book, you must understand the seriousness of this wayward false doctrine. It is absolutely anti-Christ. Jesus suffered unimaginable emotional and physical pain for what? To commission the likes of this type of arrogance? No, he did not. If you have found yourself decreeing and declaring, you must repent of it. It is pride. Pride has many hues. This shade is dark indeed.

There are those who propose that Jesus did not die to just save you, he died to give you ‘dominion’ over the earth. They propose that God wants us to subdue the earth by taking over regions and cities by force, but Jesus did not have an interest in the kingdoms of the earth. “Again, the devil took him (Jesus) to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. ‘All this I will give you, if you will bow down and worship me.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Away from me, Satan: for it is written: Worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only’ Matthew 4:8-10. Preachers! Many of you are making up stuff! Jesus did not come to rule over the earth! He did not come to establish His kingdom on the earth, but rather in the earth, the hearts of men. From the earth we were created. He comes to get on the inside of the earth (our hearts).

This ‘Dominion Theology’ that has taken root in the nation has permeated the thinking of many in Christendom. It is a gateway to the pride of life. It is a portal to selfish ambition and a false sense of authority. Brethren, how can we think for a moment we should pursue what our Lord did not, the earth? The greatest exercise of ‘authority’ and ‘dominion’ is not over the earth, but rather, over oneself! What does it prosper you to have ‘dominion’ over your work place, and have no dominion over your own soul (your mind, will and emotions). You are moody, angry, addicted and depressed - that is not dominion. That's bondage.

In the beginning, when God said, 'Let us make man in our image and let them have dominion over the earth,' (Genesis 1:26), there was no sin. God had not yet created Adam and Eve. During that time, Adam did have dominion over the earth. There was peace with man and everything that God had made. Therefore, Adam was able to approach and examine the animals before he named them. He was able to do this prior to sin entering the earth because of the 'dominion' Adam did have. Adam was not afraid of the lion, and the lion was not hostile towards Adam. However, after Adam sinned against God, man lost control/dominion over the earth. Try walking up to a lion or a bear and see what would happen to you today! The earth is now cursed - dominion is done!! Control yourself! Take authority and dominion over anything that has you in bondage to this earth or yourself.

Salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ is not about regaining what has been cursed until his return, but rather, maintaining control over the most unruly, stubborn, mean, selfish, prideful foe that you and I will ever encounter...our souls. Your soul is filled with thoughts, suggestions and ideas that are hostile towards God. They are the enemy of the Holy Spirit. As one great preacher once said so accurately, 'My enemy is in me!' Many have been seduced into trying to gain control over the wrong kingdom, the world/the earth/materialism, which is our eternal nemesis. We have allowed 'our kingdom,' the heart, where Jesus abides, to perish and come under the dominion of mortal men who are masters of religious jargon on how to subdue the wrong kingdom. It is here, the portal to mental illness has captured many who are experiencing privately as confessing Christians because of false doctrines.

The greatest master and ruler on the earth after sin entered the earth, is not the one who can pursue their desire to acquire the treasures and pleasures of this present world. It is not the person who can boast how much authority and power he or she has, but rather, the person who can die to the many fleeting temptations to make it into eternity with God. Jesus warned us about the wide road, 'Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it,' Matthew 7:13. Why only a few? Because Saints of God, real salvation is not about increase, but rather decrease, that Jesus may increase in and through the earth - our hearts! He said, "If I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all men unto me." You and I cannot lift Him up from our hearts if they are filled with greed and an undying need to succeed. We cannot serve God and money. How do you know you are serving money, rather than God? You will be depressed, empty, and full of anxiety without it! You will do just about anything to get it: illicit sex, sell drugs, lie, steal, cheat, and worse than all these, neglect your children and spouse chasing the paper (money that is). How many relationships are being devoured by the love of money, power and success? Is yours?

Jesus must have a habitation to reveal himself in the earth. The habitation is your heart. If your heart is set on the earth: fame, success, money, power and material things, Jesus cannot get through your heart into the earth (the hearts of those who do not have eternal life by the saving power of Jesus Christ). He will find a 'dead-in' because of our desire for the trappings of this world instead of the richness of the spirit.

Before a seed can grow, it has to first penetrate the earth. Remember, we are from the earth. Unless we are willing to die to this world, Jesus cannot get through to us to reach others that are drowning in the world. Real Christianity is self-denial! The narrow road that leads to eternal life is only traveled by those that are willing to deny themselves, their sinful natures' cravings and propensities as we hold on to our only Savior and eternal boss, Jesus Christ, who died on the Cross for the sins of the whole world. Jesus is our model. He is our guide to make it through and know the difference of those who have not been sent by Him.

This false gospel in America is all about acquiring the kingdoms of this world. It's all about the physical earth and all things therein. Get all! Be all! Do all you can in the Name of Jesus! It is a Counterfeit Gospel that baits you to desire what is soon to pass away! If you are serving this false Christ of materialism and the pride of life, you are going to perish. What does it profit us if we have 'dominion' over the earth and yet lose our souls? What does it profit you to have dominion over cities and regions and you are mentally ill, because your 'own city', your soul, is absent of the ruler over all dominions, powers and principalities, the Lord Jesus Christ, who is King of kings and Lord of lords?

Would you purchase a ship that you knew was going to sink? Absolutely not!

Then why are we allowing false teachers and greedy men and women to lie about God and tell us that this world system is not going down! Brethren, it is a sinking ship just like the Titanic. If you try to hold on to anything that it has to offer you, it has the potential to take you down with it! You must travel light and be ready to meet the creator of it all – God! Death will come for you. It is a call that no one can ignore. Are you ready? Are you preparing for 'Your Call?'

When God flooded the earth in the day of Noah, they were trying to get on the boat, but now, if we are wise, we need to be trying to 'get off' the boat, and keep its 'chains' off of our hearts. You cannot swim with chains on your hands and feet. Neither can you hear the voice of Jesus, the Good Shepherd when you have the wrong voices in your ears such as the countless false teachers in our Nation.

The essence of the message in America by false messengers of Jesus Christ is all about 'how to' get what you want from God, rather than what God wants from you. These teachings promote self-worship, idolatry and control. Church - think! Think! Think! There is ONLY ONE who is in control of all things and you cannot manipulate Him or command Him to do anything! A false 'god' maybe you can boss around and tell them what to do, but not the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! Some better re-check His record before they enter eternity without His mercy for seducing people into becoming lovers of themselves and materialism in the name of 'covenant' rights from God.

I wonder what Job would have to say to us in this hour. I wonder what he would have to say to our 'prosperity' guru's about how he lost all ten of his children and everything that he owned in one day! What would they say to him about his body being infested with boils from the top of his head to the bottom of his feet? What principles on healing and prosperity would they give to this man who was being tested under the watchful eye of God himself, who allowed the devil to afflict Job? Read the story for yourself. It is true! God knew what Job was going through, and God brought him out in His time. No principles or 'seeds' for his needs!

What about Jesus, who was mercilessly beaten and humiliated before being placed on the tree for you, and for me? What doctrine of 'authority' was Jesus lacking when they beat Him and spit in His face (Mark 14:65)? Why did Jesus not take authority? Did He lack revelation to "decree" and "declare" his deliverance? What about Stephen who was stoned to death as he called upon the name of the Lord, Acts Chapter 7. Why didn't Stephen rebuke the 'prince of the air' as those stones came upon him? And how can we forget Paul apostle, who received 39 lashes on five separate occasions? Paul was beaten with rods on three occasions, stoned and left for dead once, shipwrecked on three different occasions, 2Corinthians, Chapter 11. Why didn't Paul just 'take authority' over these 'situations?' Did he not have our 'modern' day principles and understanding of his 'covenant' rights? Come on Church! Wake up! Suffering is part of life! It is part of being a 'real' disciple of Jesus Christ. We have been deceived in America by men and women that could not handle the perils of Paul the apostle in the least. They would lose their minds! Look how they carry on when you miss one week of church!

In many cases, these false messengers have twisted up the scriptures so badly they have deceived their congregations into buying them palatial homes, expensive clothes and luxury cars while their churches are wastelands. Dumps! Literally! If your church has had a building fund for years and years, without any real sign of remodeling or ground breaking, you ought to be checking them out! Where is the money going? Why is the House of God so raggedy and outdated? Their mansions are not! They will invite their congregations to their exquisite, manicured, suburban homes while boasting of 'What the 'Lord' has done for them.' Yeah! The Lord of the Flies! Charlatans! Why are we so gullible? Why? Why? Why?

Why do so many tolerate pastors who must be escorted to their thrones, Oops! I meant to say, escorted to their pulpits, as if they are some kind of celebrities, while so called prophets and prophetess' sit in the midst of these self-worshippers' and say absolutely nothing, craving their own affirmation and recognition in the House of God. They are accomplices to these corrupt messengers' ungodly crimes, guilty by association, lulled to sleep by spiritual trickery that has hypnotized them. Stuck in a rut, because deep in their hearts, they want what they are seeing - the pride of life and pseudo authority. They are watchmen who have fallen asleep on their jobs in the churches in America, defectors of the faith as well, because silence is consent. Even a dog will bark when he senses trouble, but some of these so-called ‘prophets’ won’t even peep!

You will usually hear them say, they have been ‘placed’ at these money hungry ministries to pray and intercede. They will say that God has not ‘released’ them to leave. The truth is that they have personal agenda’s of their own. They want to be recognized and acknowledged by their ‘celebrity’ leaders. They are spiritual ‘brown noses,’ especially if their pastors are popular and known for rubbing elbows with well-known ‘successful’ preachers, and ‘gospel’ artists. They tolerate the neglect, haughtiness, and lack of gratitude these ‘leaders’ exert towards them. They hope they will be ‘promoted’ by them and then it will be their turn to get rich and show boat. Or shall I use the new cliché in some ‘Christian’ sects; they want to be ‘birthed out.’ They are worshippers of men! They help perpetuate the madness that is going on in the American Church. They are as dangerous as those they follow.

Why do so many continue to go to churches where they cannot even call their pastor privately when the church has only twenty members? Why do many tolerate such arrogance and neglect? These people are not real pastors. Listen my Friend, if your ‘pastor’ is very flashy and overly dressed like a man or woman out of GQ or Vogue, draped in bling-bling, flashy jewelry, the latest designer duds, constantly talking about money, money, money, he or she IS A WOLF! A Hireling! Especially those men who carry designer ‘men purses’ that claim to be preachers ~ come on now! COME ON!! Something is going on with that! I thought handbags were for women – I’m just saying!

Hirelings are usually not easily assessable or approachable to those they lead. They are aloof and distant from their followers as they carry on like celebrities, making grand entrances and being waited on hand and foot, as if they are some kind of ‘gods.’

Some of you are in churches where the ‘pastor’ doesn’t even know your name and you have been a faithful member for years. Why? Because hirelings do not take a ‘personal’ interest in people they lead, they do not love them, and in some cases, they do not even like them. The pulpit is their performance station where they get their adrenaline rush. Come on people of God! Wake up! Come out from amongst these ravenous WOLVES! The Lord will lead you. He will hold your hand. And for some of you ministers in training, God will order your steps to be ordained, for there are countless young ministers who are craving to be affirmed by their pastors. Some of you will never get it until you get out of these churches and start walking with the true Spirit of God by faith! God will lead you to spiritual leaders who have not bowed their knee to the money tree. They will acknowledge the gift of God in you, you must trust God!

If your pastor is trying to build a new sanctuary that will hold 1,000 people, and your fellowship has only 10 members, you need to run! He or she is dreaming! They are living on Fantasy Island. Talk about selfish ambition. Not to mention the arrogance that it takes to try and fleece such a small group of people in the Name of God.

Your soul is too important to be stuck in a congregation, where the shepherd is a wolf! Come out from amongst them!!!
RUN FOR YOUR ETERNAL LIFE!!!!

Church Hopping?

Predatory preachers are much like corporate competitors who will do just about anything to retain your business, even lie and outright twist the truth and for many, psychologically manipulate their followers to believing you should not visit other churches, they insinuate that it is dangerous, but, you found their church didn't you? If they would proclaim Jesus and the necessity of spending time in the Scriptures for yourself, the way they ought too, the least of their concern would be for you visiting another fellowship as they claim they are concerned you will be deceived. My Friend, this is a 'shady' sales tactic indeed!

The church is a 'global' family, NOT a competitive organization that uses high pressure, marketing ploys and retention strategies to keep your business. Ooops! I meant to say your membership! These types of 'pastors' are not genuinely concerned about you; it is all part of the game. They are concerned about their tithes and offerings possibly going to another church. They are concerned about the reality that they could lose their earthly acquisitions they have acquired off of your money that they are depending on to maintain their lofty living. Remember, sinister ministers have bills to pay just like you my Friend. You are their sustenance. You are their sugar babies. Your money is their sweet, sweet rewards.

You must know and understand that when you continue to stay in allegiance with these types of men and women, who are manipulators, you are just as wrong as they are. You are guilty by association! You continue to give them your money and your time. You allow them to abuse you, neglect you, and take your hard-earned money while praying and hoping they will one day soon acknowledge the ministry the Lord has placed in your life. No! It will not happen! It is all about them and YOUR money. They do not love you!

By staying in these churches, you are enabling them to continue their behavior – without followers, they have nothing! Without followers, they have a good chance to come under the conviction of God for repentance and restoration. If you love them like some of you say that you do, leave them.

The best way to help them is to leave and take somebody with you! Glory to God! Run for your life!!!! RUUUUUUN!!!! Get your kids, their friends, grandma, grandpa, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, grand kids, great, great grand kids and get the heck out of dodge!!! Stop talking about how good they can preach! That is the seduction, smooth words and eloquence of speech. They are enemies of the Cross! Get out of there!!

You say, but what about my ministry? I need “my pastor” to “release me.” STOP IT ALREADY! What about your ministry? If it is authentic and sealed by the Holy Ghost, you need no man to “release you,” you are supposed to be outside the four walls of a church building working the fields of the souls of men. There are only so many positions that can be occupied in a fellowship meeting, stop whining and go work those “fields” on your job, at the grocery store and the mall! Your “pulpit” is portable! Wherever you are, God Is! Now go to Work!!!!!! Pull those from the “pit” of bondage you are encountering all around you daily minister! So you say you are....Okay! I do believe you, now act like it! Stop being a spiritual brown nosier’ and cry baby! God loves you my Friend! Shake off the need for praise, acknowledgment and ordination from mortal men! Did God really call you? Humble yourself under his mighty hand and in due season HE will lift you up! His eye is on the sparrow, rest assured, His eye is on you too!!

Some ‘sinister ministers’ will put you in ministry to keep you craving for their acknowledgment and their praise. Whatever you have been doing for them, you need to dedicate it all back to God who has called you and stop playing the game. The world is waiting on you daily to give them Jesus. God is watching you on your job, at the grocery store; at the gas station... this is your proving ground for real. COME ON! Let’s Go Soldiers in the Army of the Lord – LET’S GO!!!!!!!!!!

Ministry is Not a destination, it is a journey of day to day combat and service to our fellowman. It is a lifestyle, not a Sunday event to showcase our gifts. We are there to fellowship and be empowered to go back into the mission field of life and compel others to restore their lives back to God through the shed blood of Jesus Christ - NOTHING MORE, AND NOTHING LESS! Do not allow selfish men and women to prostitute your gifts, time and your dimes!!! The Lord of The Harvest of the souls of men is waiting for you. HELP WANTED!!! IMMEDIATE HIRE!!! ALL APPLICANTS ACCEPTED!

Ministry is daunting, it is not for the feeble minded or those who are easily persuaded by the crafty slight of men. It is for those who are willing to pick up your cross and follow the eternal Boss, the Christ and his glory. He is not looking for perfect vessels; he is looking for yielded vessels sold out to him exclusively. You should know that finding a pastor is like looking for a good pair of walking shoes. It usually takes time to find a really good pair, especially if you are serious about your walk with God.

We will go all over town, from mall to mall, outlet to outlet, looking for the perfect pair of shoes. Yet, when it comes to finding a pastor, when it comes to submitting our lives to their instruction from the Word of God, we settle for anybody? Especially when they look ‘prosperous’ and they are very good orators, even though we sense in our hearts it is not a good ‘fit.’ People of God, it is time to take off the ‘man-made’ leather shoes, and go find yourself a nice pair of real leather Rockport’s—for those of you who don’t know, Rockport’s are one of few shoes that are designed for guaranteed comfort. Their shoes are not usually very stylish or flashy, but boy can you walk for miles in them comfortably.

As we go, and grow in our spiritual walk with God, we need different size shoes as we keep growing. So, it is with a pastor. As you grow in God, you need to know when to pull away and begin to look for a new pair of shoes when the old pair no longer fits or the “sole” of the shoe is ran down. No sole, no shoes! No preaching and teaching on the wages of sin to save your “soul,” time to find a new pastor! Is this to say that the old pair of shoes or pastor is condemned? Absolutely not! Is this to say that you are no longer qualified to keep walking with God because you know that your feet are hurting, and you must begin to look for a new pastor or a new pair of shoes? Absolutely not! If you are in ministry for Christ, should you stop working for His glory because you are looking for a new pair of shoes - a new pastor, ABSOLUTELY NOT!

Are you “out of the will of God” because you are visiting different churches? ABSOLUTELY NOT! There are many pastors who will attempt to manipulate their follower’s by condemning others who are not a member of a church, or who are visiting to find their new pair of shoes/pastor. BE VERY CAREFUL of these types of pastors, because the real reason they are attempting to manipulate and condemn others to stay put and not visit other churches, is because they want to secure their tithes and offerings! If you are out shopping at other stores, it is likely you will make a purchase somewhere else! Make no mistake about it, church hopping, or shall I say, church “shopping” is not a sin, lying and manipulating others to stay under your influence to get their money is! Away with the witchcraft!!!! Leave God’s people alone with the ‘mind control’ dogmas! My Friend, you can visit anywhere you want too, when you want too! Don’t believe the hype! You are not a “dumb” sheep as some would suppose that you are, you are God’s child, you are wise, you are perceptive and you are not a money bank for anyone to shake down for your savings and retirement monies to pay for their next shopping spree at their favorite elite department store.

If I am going to competitively shop for a good pair of shoes, I am going to do the exact same when it comes to trusting my soul, my talents, my gifts, my time and “my dimes” with a mortal man who has the exact same sin nature as I have! I am going to “shop until I drop!” Hop! Hop! Hop!! If it takes you 20 church visits, don’t stop to you find what you should be looking for. Don’t believe the hype – be set free! God is a good God, He has your back, keep it moving if you have too; don’t allow anyone to continue to play ‘mind games’ with your life for their own selfish gain.

My Friend remember, if you do not have a regular place of worship and fellowship, you need to look for a pastor, not a church! Let me again illustrate this very vital point this way. For those of you who are trying to lose weight. Stop trying to lose weight and focus on the more important thing, getting healthy, which means eating more nutritious foods, (raw fruits and vegetables) and then you'll automatically lose the weight. Being healthy is the real benefit, not the weight loss! Finding a 'church home' is not what you should be looking for, you should be looking for someone that is filled with God's spirit, teaching holy things provoking you to live for eternity, not for you to indulge in your 'best life' here on the earth.

I was told by a woman who had been a 'member' of her church for years that she was in a car accident that caused her to be hospitalized for nearly two months. She was very involved in her church. She said that she was 'close' to her pastors. Her church has an average of 50 people per week. The pastor and his wife never took the time to visit her in the hospital, nor did they visit her during her many months of recovery. I was shocked! When I asked if they even sent her A card or flowers, she said no, but that she 'felt' their prayers for her....What? This woman lost everything! When I asked if her church helped her with her finances, she said that her pastors took up a one-time offering of $141-dollars. Can you believe this? She was a tither too! Hmmmm. I smell another rat, don't you?

How disheartening it was to listen to this woman talk about how she was going to pay for the church parking lot (that was gravel and needed to be paved) after she received her insurance money from her accident. Can you believe this? I asked the woman, why? She said that she understood her pastors, 'they are very busy people,' she said. Busy doing what? You almost lose your life and not one of them came to see about you? This is craaaaaazy! Why do we make excuses for this type of blatant neglect and obvious bad behavior that reveals that these two people that this woman is calling her pastors, are not pastors, they are hirelings! Ravenous Wolves!! As the old adage says, you find out who your real friends are when you get into trouble.

This woman almost lost her life and neither this man, nor his wife took the time to go and see about her? There is no excuse except they are hirelings! Remember, hirelings do not care about people, only the rewards of their labor. This is why countless men and women have been seduced into ministry to earn a buck. However, a good shepherd is always tending to his sheep. He will not rest knowing that one of them has been hurt, especially when he has a small group to lead. He will watch over them with real love and care, rising to the occasion to show himself strong in times like this, and he will rebuke you of your sin without apology, why, because he is watching for your soul, not your wallet or your purse.

My dear brother or sister, I close with one question. Who Really Is Your Pastor? Is he or she your spiritual teacher, helping you find meaning in your relationship with Jesus Christ to prepare you for eternity? Or are they arrogant, self-serving, boasters of materialism, fakers, masquerading as servants sent by God in the Name of Jesus Christ to take advantage of your time, dimes and talents putting you in mental distress about ‘church hopping’ and giving your 10% to God? What is their real message my Friend? When is the last time you even heard, them mention ‘hell,’ repent or sin and any of their discourse?

If you do not have a ‘church home” YOU ARE NOT sinning my Friend. Seek to have a closer relationship with God and look for opportunities DAILY to meet other sincere followers of Christ that just might be meeting in their homes.....the early church started in homes. Priscilla and Aquila where the first couple to host a house church...study who they were. The corrupt preacher wants you to think “the church’ is your savior instead of Jesus Christ . No one should compromise for the sake of getting along with corrupt preachers, never! Carry on in peace Soldier!!! CARRY ON!

CHAPTER FIVE

The Great Seduction

Charismatic, predatory preachers attract the big crowds and seduce them into their seemingly successful ministries by insisting their followers adhere to laws and principles they will tell you they have applied to their own lives, that is the reason for their wealth.

They promise if you sow your money to them, you will prosper too, just follow the principles. It is here that you must consider your thoughts on how to get out of financial debt and other negative circumstances in your life, because the corrupt preacher will constantly talk about ‘debt cancellation’ usually only has one way out - the twisted and false doctrine of ‘Sowing Seed and Reaping Your Harvest.’ Now listen very closely, all throughout the Bible, you can find this principle on ‘sowing and reaping’ along with many others. However, there is a person who we must take into consideration when it comes to sowing and reaping - GOD! We must NEVER forget as human beings, we have a propensity to make ‘gods’ out of God’s creation. We cannot forget the creator of ‘ALL’ things can do whatever, whenever HE wants too! He can defy the ‘law of physics,’ whenever He wants too! He can deny the ‘laws of nature,’ whenever He wants too! He can disregard patterns and principles whenever HE wants too! However, His nature and character never changes. GOD is SOVEREIGN! He will not allow us to manipulate Him with His own creation or His written Word – the scriptures.

Now listen ‘VERY, VERY’ carefully - when there is a measure of ‘blessing,’ expansion or elevation in our lives, we must guard our hearts from becoming a ‘self’ proclaiming guru on 'how to' acquire wealth and prosperity. In our modern-day church culture, this is what becomes the seduction and 'deceitfulness of the heart' for those who are sincerely seeking to know God. We must not allow pride to escort us into the position that we can tell someone else the 'principle' or the 'formula' on how to get what we have. This is the bait of Satan - pride, self-exaltation! If one is not very careful, in your heart, you will believe God did not REALLY bless you, but rather, YOU worked the laws and principles so well that you made it happen. And you can convince yourself that now you are qualified to show and tell everyone else how to get what you have, after they 'sow' their money into your 'blessed' life. This is deception, self-aggrandizing, pride! Danger, danger, danger! This is the mindset of predatory preachers and should be a major red flag for those who seek the truth of God through the Holy Scriptures.

False teachers will often give a resume of other 'well known' preachers they are 'partnered' with, or talk about who their spiritual fathers are. They love to name drop as a way to make their position look more prosperous and solid than it really is. Listen to what some will say, 'Come on, it's time to reap your harvest and break the spirit of poverty off your life and your family, Glory to God! Send us a 'One Time' seed offering of $91.00. The greater your need, the bigger the seed! The Lord will multiply it! This is a Psalm 91 Anointing!' (They will tell you the Lord spoke to them after they turned their Bible to pages in Psalm 91, and this is why they chose the dollar amount that you should 'sow.' This is crazy, crazy, CRAZY!! My Friend, it is much more complex than this! Not to mention the fact that there are 'natural laws' that govern many things that can happen for just about anyone if they do follow certain 'principles.' If Paul the apostle could speak to our generation, he would surely ask the same question he asked the Church in Galatia. 'O' foolish Americans, who has bewitched you?' Principles and laws are predictable, but God is not! There is no science to walking with Him, you just walk with Him and trust Him. Trust that He knows the way that you take, and that He will do what He has promised - in His time, and in His way. This is where things get very interesting, because there are those who will boast of the things they have as a result of the ‘principles’ they used to create the ‘things’ that they have acquired. You’ve seen some of them before – secular money experts, who will sell you a three-part series on ‘How to Become a Millionaire in a Year’ or ‘How to Earn $100,000 in One Month.’ These people are selling principles, formulas and techniques. They are no different than the culprits in our pulpits, who are twisting the Word of God and using it as their product and brand.

Listen VERY, VERY carefully again, a principle is a law; standard; golden rule; form; formula, fundamental; rudiment, something orderly or serial. A law is a principle, the difference between the two is that a law is usually ‘fixed,’ while a principle can be ‘changed,’ and ‘varied.’ For example, we have traffic ‘laws,’ not traffic ‘principles,’ that are fixed throughout the nation. No matter where you go, the ‘STOP’ sign means ‘STOP.’ If a traffic officer catches you, you will get a ticket for not stopping, or for not acknowledging and obeying the law. This is an ‘established’ law. Now if I were to borrow $50.00 from you, you would expect for me to give your money back to you on time, and when I said that I would return it. If I do not return it as I said I would, you would more than likely become upset with me, right? Why? Because of the ‘principle.’

Now here is the problem that we are having with false doctrines (teachings) that have to do with money and acquiring things for ourselves in the name of ‘principles’ and ‘laws’ with God’s Word. Just as the traffic officer who stops the person for driving through the stop sign, and just as you would more than likely be upset if I did not pay you back your $50.00, you and the traffic officer have ‘the power’ to show mercy, or you can ‘uphold’ the law or the principle. How much more can God decide to uphold, or not uphold, concerning the laws or principles that He has made? He is sovereign, and the creator of ALL things! He knows who we ‘really’ are! He does not have to answer to ‘ANY MAN,’ nor does He have to honor ANY law or principle that man tries to use to manipulate Him into doing what they want Him to do, and when.

In the book of Jeremiah 17:9, it is here that we find the potential danger of believing that laws and principles are a guarantee to success for walking with God, and for accessing His favor and blessings. ‘The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. Who can know it? I the Lord search the heart. I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.’ Wow! This is a very powerful scripture! What is God saying here, and how does it relate to ‘principles’ and ‘laws’ that are being taught so dogmatically in our nation by the big bad wolves?

The heart is like weather is to a natural harvest. It is the deciding factor to whether any of us will have what we say. This is what the ‘faith’ and ‘prosperity’ predators will tell you as if it is a sure thing, but is it? We just read that our hearts are deceitful and desperately wicked! How can we know at times what our ‘real’ intentions and motives are for the things that we do and want? The Word of God clearly tells us that He searches the heart, He tests us, and He gives to every man according to his way. Simply stated, God is in control! Not us! You can “decree” and “declare” all that you want too, but until God says yes, your labor is in vain and if not careful, you could go insane trying to have your way outside of the providence of God’s will for your life.

Laws and principles are like ‘tracks’ to a railroad. They are laid down to keep the train on track. It is not the tracks that take the train where it is going necessarily, but rather, the conductor of the train. This is why multitudes are on a ‘fast track’ going nowhere, as they boast of the principles they have used to amass financial empires, only to find themselves paying someone else $200.00 an hour to counsel them out of their depression and addictions. Many of us who have been seduced by these wicked workers in Christendom are moving, but going nowhere. We have been deceived into seeking ‘tracks,’ rather than ‘the conductor’ of our lives, Jesus Christ, the Savior of our souls, that we may spend eternity with God.

If we are not careful, we will begin to think in our hearts that as long as we have the ‘principle,’ we don’t really need ‘The Prince’ of the principles ~ Jesus Christ, the Son of God! It is here, that you can open a gateway of self-deception that will potentially blind you as you seek to become a master of hermeneutics, which is a system, formula or method of interpreting the Word of God. You become a professional student of theology, but you lack the reality of the one that you are studying about, the conductor, Jesus Christ, who died and rose from the dead for your sins, who is the Prince of Peace.

Jesus Is the Prince of Peace

I recall a pastor of a very large denomination who committed suicide. He had several degrees in theology. He had several hundred followers in his congregation, when he decided to commit suicide. I was shocked! How could this educated man of theology take his own life? He did not know the conductor. He was a master of ‘tracks’ – principles and laws. He was a master of the ‘written’ Word, but He did not know the ‘Living Word,’ Jesus Christ. He knew of God, but sadly, he did not know God. He was religious. His head was full of knowledge on how to ride the ‘tracks,’ but his heart could not discern the conductor who would never want any one of us to self-destruct. Never!

Jesus did not die to ‘complicate’ our lives, but rather to ‘liberate’ our lives! He did not come to offer the world another religion. He came to give us access back to God through a relationship, not religion! Religion is performance, a deceiver, a counterfeit! You can be extremely religious, and have absolutely no relationship with God. However, we cannot meet God and not become religious. If serving ‘God’ has left you with a desire to die, you are on the wrong track of religion, principals, laws, and traditions! Relationship with God through Jesus Christ produces life, not death; Life is for the ‘living.’ God needs workers, witnesses, and warriors who desire to ‘live’ for Him, not people with Bible knowledge and great exposition without any ‘experience’ of His presence in their lives, “For without Christ, there is no life, (John 6),” just knowledge. As the writer of this book, you can know of me, but never experience my presence. And so, it is with multitudes that have never experienced the presence of God who inspired men to write the Holy Scriptures.

When we walk with God and the one He has given all power in heaven and in earth – Jesus Christ, this relationship transcends ‘laws’ and ‘principles.’ It is all about what He deems necessary and right for our lives, so that pride and selfish ambition will not destroy us. It does not matter what law or principle becomes your ‘pet dogma,’ YOU CANNOT MANIPULATE GOD! He knows exactly who we are. We cannot fool Him. No amount of ‘sowing’ your money can manipulate Him! None! He is God! Brothers and Sisters in Christ, think about it. Who would really want to be in a relationship with someone you could methodically and systematically manipulate and get whatever you wanted from them? How predictable, boring and unchallenging is this notion?

We must understand that walking with God is not about what we want, but rather what He wants! He knows the propensity in man that wants to have control. Is not the essence of ‘sowing a seed’ for your needs about getting control over your life situations? Is it not about us, and what we want? Is it not about taking the things God has established (laws and principles) and using them to ‘strong arm’ God for our own selfish desires under the guise of ‘faith’? This is why ‘crop failure’ is a must for us, as the Lord so patiently tills the ground of our hearts.

I have found it very interesting to note that most of the ‘big’ televangelists and preachers of large ministries that promote these false teachings, ALL come from poverty. Why is this very important to note? Because this is the bait of Satan! He seduces them into believing that ‘godliness is gain,’ while their ‘rags to riches’ testimonies become the bait for those that are poor, living in poverty, or going through financial crisis as they once were. Pride and self-righteousness are the fuel of their labor, as they solicit others to ‘sow a seed’ into their ministry. They will boast about their earthly possessions as a way to justify their ‘authority’ to teach you how to have all the ‘things’ that they have, which you would have too if you were mutating the Word of God as they are. They will tell you they are 'good' ground; after all, they have lots of stuff to prove it! And for most, they convince their followers that they should have mansions, luxury living and fancy cars, when in fact, they are idolaters and those that follow them will become just the same, and thus the madness continues. How can any preacher live in a mansion when multitudes in America have no place to live and nothing to eat from day to day? How can any preacher blame politicians for the state of the union when they refuse to help the helpless and undergird the rejected and downtrodden that are killing, mugging, robbing and raping AND they are ignoring them riding off into the sunset to lay out in their home theatre sipping smoothies and watching world news complaining, yet they are the ones called by God to sacrifice their lives to care for the downtrodden.

There are many people who are not followers of Jesus, but they are very wealthy and have never given a church or preacher a dime. Pulpit predators exploit their past struggles for personal gain by twisting the Word of God and using it as their consumer product. It is all about The Benjamin's ~ money that is! They teach that it's all about being a faithful giver to "the church." Make no mistake my Friend, "the church" really is their personal bank account! They give no account for where "the churches" money has been spent.

It is time for many of us to grow up and look up to the author and finisher of your faith. Do Not allow greed and selfishness to control YOU! This is precisely the reason why many people do crave being associated with false teachers. Birds of a feather usually do flock together! This is also the reason we do have some very large churches in our nation. The people who follow false teachers are just as lustful for power and wealth as the ones they follow. They want a 'god' that will not mention their sin, but rather, a 'god' that can be methodically and systematically apprehended to do whatever they want him to do, as if He is a circus animal they can train for gain! God Forbid!

Church of America, we must refuse to throw caution to the wind by capitalizing on our humble beginnings. We must be careful not to use our past to justify our solicitation of others 'allegiances' to acquire, or maintain our influence and financial security, especially at the expense of the poor and downtrodden, who may already struggle with the thought that God does not love them because they are poor. This is what makes many vulnerable to false teachings when there is lack, desolation and very serious situations in your life. However, listen very closely, the Savior of the world, Jesus Christ, was born in a feeding trough, a manger, where animals were fed! Jesus was born in poverty! Now, can you imagine Jesus on the airwaves telling His 'testimony' of how He overcame the emotional pain of being born in a manger, by a woman that did not 'know' who His father (God) was? He would be the ideal one to say He had an anointing to prosper and give us 'principles' on how we could too, if we would 'sow a seed' into His ministry by logging onto His web-site: www.SowASeedtotheSonofGod.com

Listen my Friend, poverty is a part of life. It is, and will always be around, just as Jesus told us, 'You shall always have the poor among you,' Mark 14:7. There are multitudes who do love God just as much as the next person, and they are poor. Whether one remains in a poor season of life or not, they will more than likely at some point need the love, and resources of others to help them along their way to 'prosperity.' There is nothing more disheartening than a person who does have money and power, yet they are spiritually bankrupt. They have a $5,000 bedroom set and cannot sleep, a refrigerator full of food, but cannot eat. All the "things" they could ever want, but, it does not satisfy. Every earthly treasure that seemingly would make them happy, yet they are suicidal, angry and depressed.

We must consider these facts; 'What 'principles' did Abraham and Solomon apply to become very wealthy men?' What 'principles' did our spiritual father, Abraham apply to become qualified to have a covenant relationship with God? What about Enoch and Noah, both of whom the Word of God tells us 'walked' with God, Genesis 6:9? These men loved God! Their lives were not bound by rigid, formulated principles that came from false apostles, prophets, evangelist, pastors and teachers. They did not have to 'sow a seed' for their 'need.' Nor did they have affiliations to denominations and covenant partnerships with men. These men were partners with God. These men walked with God! Are you walking with God or man? Are you earthly accepted, but heavenly rejected?

John, the apostle (messenger) of Jesus Christ, who wrote the entire book of Revelation, was exiled to the Island of Patmos, where it is believed that he lived for 18 months. It seems to me that this man of God definitely had a need! This island was not fertile at all. It was small and rocky. I am sure John was in 'need' of some Taco Bell's or Wendy's, something! Heck, I'm sure he would have 'needed' a cell phone to call Pizza Hut at some point in his isolation. Not to mention, the cold nights that he had without any Christian Network Television to help pray him through this barren season of his life. He would have at least needed a plane, or helicopter ride to get off that barren island, maybe a row boat, or something, to get him out of his 'desperate situation.' I presume John would have probably 'sowed' his 'seed' into Paul's ministry, who was more than likely still alive during this time. Church, pause and think on these things! The Island of Patmos was the will of God for John, for out of Patmos, this small rocky place that John was exiled, came what we now call 'The Book of Revelation.' Many of you are trying to 'sow' your way out of the places that Jesus wants you to show up, and speak to you from, just as he did with John. Learn this and never forget it ~ NO BUY OUT from Patmos! Let no one deceive you, but rather, 'let God' strengthen you to go through the 'desolate' seasons of your life knowing this is part of HIS plan for you.

God knows what you have need of. Wait on the Lord, and be of good courage! But whatever you do from now on, DON'T SOW ANY MORE SEEDS! Learn to give only as you purpose to give in your own heart. Let no one continue to play mind games with you to steal your money from you, especially if you are in sincere need of a financial blessing - watch those wolves, for they are howling everywhere!

Bless your pastor and leaders who have been a blessing to you in your local church who you know are not living lifestyles of the rich and famous off your finances while ignoring the poor and downtrodden. Real messengers of God are called to give up our lives to serve humanity. All else ARE imposters!!

33 Signs of a Corrupt Preacher

“By their fruit, you shall know them by their fruit”

A predatory preacher is a man or woman who uses tradition, man-made teachings as commandments of God, and false teachings to manipulate and control their followers for their own selfish gain.

1. Use ‘scare’ tactics to manipulate payment of tithes and offerings, twisting the Scriptures telling their followers they are under a ‘curse’ if they do not “pay God.”

2. Insist on being called reverend, bishop, prophetess, apostle, elder, evangelist, pastor; using titles on business cards and social media exalting themselves.

3. They charge registration fees for Christian conferences, events, their own birthday parties and other self-promoting events in their own honor.

4. Allow provocatively dressed women to teach, usher, sing on praise teams and lead in their churches, some showcasing their wives who are also sexually provocative.

5. Rarely, if ever talk about Jesus, sin or hell. When they do, they make light of it.

16. Teach falsely, if followers “sow” their money to God, they will ‘reap’ money from God by giving it to ‘their’ ministries.
17. Tell you what their family needs are and ignore yours.
18. Appear on Reality TV Shows and star in movies ‘acting’ like a preacher....Hmmmm?
19. Showcase less fortunate members to give testimony of what they have done for them to appear as though they are caring for their congregation.
20. Regard and expect their wife to be called “first lady,” the women call themselves “lady.” Will make you stand when they walk into a room or congregation.
21. Refer to the congregation as ‘their’ members, children and “sheep,” sons and daughters.
22. Claim they have an ‘anointing’ for wealth to make others rich and free from poverty.

30. Claim Christians must have a 'Church Home' or they're 'out of order' or under a curse.
31. They'll pass the offering plate more than once in their services, if the amount given does not meet their desire, they continue asking for more money - MONEY GRUBBERS INDEED!
32. Have a building fund for a 1,000 seat new sanctuary with only 10 current members.
33. They live lavishly claiming they are sent by God, boasting and flaunting materialism.

33 Signs of a Good Pastor

19. Do not showcase those he or she assists financially

23. Utilize church funds to care for those in financial hardship.
24. They do not have "armor bearers" guarding them like celebrities.
25. They do not inquire about your person assets and income.

6. Tithing was given to Israelite priests, we are Gentile

Why Pastors Won't Stop Teaching the False Doctrine of First Fruits & Tithing

1. They cannot build their churches without using this ancient commandment given to the nation of Israel.
2. They cannot maintain their material possessions and obtain more without this tradition and false doctrine.
3. They do not want to know the truth.
4. They are not real pastors rather businessmen using the Bible as their product
5. They have never studied the writings of Paul, who was a Jew, that clearly taught the New Testament follower of Christ has been freed from the Law given to ancient Israel, Galatians Chapter 2,3, 4 and 5 because of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
